UPI Employees Strike in Frankfurt

Reuter

FRANKFURT, Feb. 3 — Editorial staff of the German-language service of the American news agency United Press International went on strike here this morning, the printing and power workers' union announced.

Of the 37 German-language staff, 27 are in trade unions and 24 are striking, a UPI spokesman said. They are asking a 15 per cent increase in basic salary. The management has offered 12.3 per cent.
